How to find full-text for an article

Go to the library web page <http://www.msmc.edu/library/> and click on the Find Full Text tab.

On the page that displays, click on Citation Lookup Tool.
A blank form displays.

Enter the information from your citation.

Once the information is entered, hit submit.
The display will indicate whether the article is available in one of the library databases, as is shown here (click on the database link).

If your article is not in a database, you will see

You can then request the article through ILLiad.
